After the German EU-Presidency Expectations met? What's next on Portugal's Agenda?

Tuesday, July 17, 2007
6:00 – 8:00 pm

The Westin Grand
2350 M Street N.W. – Washington, DC

- Honorable Klaus Scharioth, Ambassador of Germany to the United States
- Honorable Joao de Vallera, Ambassador of Portugal to the United States
- Julianne Smith, Director of the European Program, Center for Strategic and International Studies
- Almut Wieland-Karimi, Director, Washington Office of the Friedrich Ebert Foundation (Moderator)

From the beginning the German EU-Presidency (January to June 2007) had been charged with high expectations. The revitalization of the European treaty was only one of the great challenges. With this event we will address the outcome of this

EU-Presidency – where did it succeed and where not? What role did and do US-European relations play? We will also look ahead and talk about the tasks of the current Portuguese EU-Presidency that started on July 1st, 2007.

Program:

6:00 pm – 6:30 pm	Welcome and Reception
6:30 pm – 7:00 pm	Statements by the Distinguished Panelists
7:00 pm – 8:00 pm	“Fish-bowl” Discussion The audience is encouraged to participate
